

Maine Farm Days
Workshops for Pesticide Credit
August 17 and 18, 2007
Misty Meadows Farm, Hill Road, Clinton, Maine

Participants receive one (1) re-certification credit per workshop.

A pre-Farm Days exercise is worth one credit to individuals who successfully complete the task. For more information go to www.umext.maine.edu and click on Maine Farm Days pesticide credit button.

Friday, August 17, 2007 -----

10:00 - 11:00 AM (Concurrent session)

Insect Identification Exercise with Clay Kirby, Extension Pest Management entomologist, University of Maine Cooperative Extension,

10:00- 11:00 AM (Concurrent session)

Cover Crops & Weed Control in Corn with Rick Kersbergen, Extension Educator, Waldo County, University of Maine Cooperative Extension

11:00 - 12:00 noon

What's Bugging Your Trees? with Bill Ostrofsky and Colleen Teerling, Entomologists, Maine Forest Service

12:30 - 1:30 PM

Choosing Pesticides Based on their Chemical Properties with Gary Fish, Maine Board of Pesticides Control

1:40 - 2:40 PM

Weed Identification Walk with Barbara Murphy, Extension Educator, Oxford County, University of Maine Cooperative Extension

* * *

Saturday, August 18, 2007 -----

10:00 - 11:00 AM

Calculating Pesticide Amounts and Rates – Practical Math for Farmers with Mark Hutchinson, Extension Educator, Knox-Lincoln Counties, University of Maine Cooperative Extension

11:10 AM - 12:10 PM

Pollinators and Pesticides with Tony Jadczak, State Apiarist, Maine Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources.

12:30 - 1:30 PM

Preventing & Controlling Rodents on the Farm with Richard Brzozowski, Extension Educator, Cumberland County, University of Maine Cooperative Extension

1:40 – 2:40 PM

Establishing & Improving Pesticide Storage on the Farm with Richard Brzozowski, Extension Educator, Cumberland County, University of Maine Cooperative Extension